PUBLIC NOTICE

THE ADINKRA INTERNATIONAL ARTS & CRAFT SHOW, GHANA IN OCTOBER, 2023

The Ghana Export Promotion Authority is organizing the Adinkra International Arts & Craft Show, Ghana (AIACSG) on the theme “Forgoing Collaborative Partnership for the Promotion of African Art” from 10th to 15th October, 2023 at the Papaye Recreational Village in the Eastern Region of Ghana. The six-day fair will comprise exhibitions, seminars, B2B and buyer-seller meetings, mentorship sessions, fun parks, and other activities designed to make the experience of the fair total.

The key objectives of the Fair are:

- To showcase the immense opportunities of the arts and crafts sectors of Africa.
- To create a platform and meeting place for arts and crafts industry players for investment and market expansion.
- To give visitors, patrons and buyers the opportunity to explore and experience authentic African arts and crafts and allied products.
- To take advantage of the African Continentals Free Trade Agreement (AfCFTA) and deepen intra-African Trade.
